Please Note: Exchange requests for items purchased on sale may not always be granted at times due to the fact that some sale items may have been "retired" or discontinued since the date of their original purchase. In such situations, the customer will be contacted to review additional satisfying exchange options. In addition, returns or exchanges will not be granted beyond a period of 60 days after the original purchase date. Also, items purchased on sale may only be exchanged for the exact same items or for other similar sale items.
